

Public International Law I

Questions for the theoretical part of the final examination:

1. Concept of public international law
2. Differences of international law and domestic legal orders
3. Development of international law (up to the 1945)
4. Distinctive features of contemporary international law in comparison to traditional international law
5. Relation between international law and national law
6. International law and Slovak legal order
7. Sources of international law, international custom
8. Sources of international law, international treaty
9. Norms of international law
10. Principles of international law
11. Codification of international law
12. State as a subject of international law
13. People, nation liberation movement and insurrectional movement
14. International organisation as a subject of international law
15. United Nations
16. Individual as a subject of international law
17. Holy See and other sui generis subjects of international law
18. Methods of peaceful settlement of disputes
19. International Court of Justice
20. Responsibility of states for internationally wrongful acts in general
21. Responsibility of states for violation of jus cogens, and for injurious consequences, responsibility of international organisation
22. Countermeasures
23. Collective measures

Thematic areas for the practical part (solving a case study) of the final examination:

1. Relation between International Law and Internal Law
2. Sources of International Law
3. Rules and Principles of International Law
4. Subjects of International Law
5. Settlement of Disputes in International Law
6. International Responsibility
7. Sanction mechanism in International Law