

Information pursuant to 11 (4) of the Study Regulations of Comenius University in Bratislava, Faculty of Law (for groups of all lecturers)

I. Semester/academic year: winter semester, 2023/2024

II. Study programme/degree/form: Law/magister/full-time

III. Course Title: Law of International Trade

IV. Scope of compulsory participation in educational activities

- Participation of students in seminars is compulsory.
- If a student does not attend three seminars his/her absence is excused
- Demonstration of reasons for the fourth, fifth and sixth absences is not required

V. Conditions under which a student may make up absences from seminars

- In the case of the fourth, fifth and sixth absences from seminars, the student is obliged to complete the material covered by self-study and to demonstrate this fact by writing an assignment in the area of the topic covered, as decided by the instructor concerned

VI. Specification of the method of assessment of learning outcomes, including specification of the method and conditions for the completion of the mid-term assessment:

a) Mid-term assessment

- consists of active participation in seminars (in particular answers to the teacher's questions) and a written legal analysis of case studies
- to pass the mid-term assessment, the student must obtain at least 6 points out of a possible 10
- only a student who has obtained at least 6 points may take the examination; if, despite the above, a student who has not obtained at least 6 points in the mid-term assessment takes the examination, he or she will be withdrawn from the examination and will not be allowed to take the examination on the day of the examination at the latest

b) Corrective mid-term assessment

- if the student has not obtained at least 6 points in the mid-term assessment, he/she will take another chance on the dates announced by the Department (one date per week of the examination period, and the student is entitled to a maximum of two; if the student does not obtain sufficient points even in the second attempt, this means that he/she has failed the continuous assessment) the written test as a whole will be evaluated by 0 (zero) points if the student's answers raise reasonable doubts about the student's work

c) Final exam

- Final oral exam is an integral part of the assessment (90%) and is based on case study.
- The student presents a solution to the questions posed in advance as well as to supplementary questions from the teacher related to the assignment.

VII. Depts of mid-term assessment, thematic headings of individual terms mid-term assessment

- The activity (answering questions) will be assessed throughout the semester.
