

Comparative Theory of Private Law

Information on course requirements

2023/2024, winter semester

Continuous evaluation: 20 % will be awarded based on in-class activity.

Final evaluation: 80 % will be awarded based on successful completion of oral exam that will consist of solving a short theoretical / practical problem and oral discussion.

During the exam, students can use all available sources of legal information, mainly legislation, commentaries, case-law, legal treatises, and legal information systems.