

Legal aspects of climate change (ENG)

Classes

Subject PAKZ and its teaching is not strictly divided into part of the lecture and part of the seminar but takes place in a hybrid form, where the emphasis is on involving students in the discussion.

The classes will take place through a team in the MS-TEAMS program.

Students were added to the team, if there is a change, it is necessary to contact the lecturer.

Classes will take place on Thursday from 13:00 (1 PM) and they will not be recorded.

At the beginning of the meeting, the participating students will be present.
