

Information according to Art. 11 par. 4 of the Study Rules of the Comenius University in Bratislava, Faculty of Law for the teacher:

Mgr. Jana Zigo

prof. Karen Sandrick

I. Semester/academic year: summer semester, 2024/2025

II. Study program/degree/form: law/bachelor's/full-time

III. Course title: Comparative Intellectual Property Law

IV. Scope of compulsory participation in educational activities

- a) Student participation in seminars is mandatory.
- b) If the student does not participate in three seminars, his absence is excused.

V. Conditions under which a student can make up for non-participation in seminars:

Only 3 absences are allowed.

VI. Specification of the method of evaluation of study results, including specification of the method and conditions for completing the remedial continuous evaluation:

Continuous assessment – a total of 100 points consists of two parts:

- 1. part: 40% (continuous assessment based on activities at seminars, case studies, students' legal analysis)

- 1. Seminar Activity (10%):

- o Active participation, engagement, and contributions during seminars.

- 2. Case Studies/Legal Analyses (30%):

- o After each thematic block (Patents 10%, Copyright 10%, and Trademarks 10%), students will complete case studies or legal analyses.

- 2. part: 60% (oral exam consisting of case studies and case discussion)

Students can use all available sources of legal information, especially statutes, commentaries, case law, legal literature, and legal information systems.

VII. Dates of continuous evaluation, thematic headings of individual dates of continuous evaluation;

- a) Continuous assessment: 2. part oral exam 19.5.-23.5.2025
- b) Thematic headings: available on the website of the institute (see above).

VIII. Information on alternative options for meeting the conditions of the continuous evaluation, which are not the overall remedial terms of the continuous evaluation according to Art. 13 par. 4 of the study rules of the faculty;

Remedial terms for the continuous evaluation will be determined only for students who did not participate in the regular term of the continuous evaluation and who proves that could not participate in this form of examination for objective and serious reasons.

The remedial term for continuous evaluation will be during examination period.

IX. Information on whether a condition for taking the exam is the achievement of the prescribed level of continuous evaluation or the prescribed scope of compulsory participation in educational activities.

-

X. Additional information

The course syllabus is available on the institute's website (see above).

In Bratislava, 14.2.2025

Mgr. Jana Zigo