

LEGAL PROFESSION

- How to become a qualified lawyer and a judge in the common law countries? Compare it with the Slovak legal system.
- Discuss the main tasks of solicitors' work
- Discuss the main tasks of barristers' work
- Discuss the main differences between the civil and criminal law
- Discuss the term negligence and its consequences
- Starting a claim in the civil court
- Legal representation – Solicitors and barristers – differences and similarities
- Law of tort – definition, characteristics
- Give simple definition of IP law/Business and company law/Contract law
- Give simple definition of Law of torts/Family law/IT law
- Employment law - explain the terms: discrimination, sick pay, redundancy
- Land law – explain the terms: conveyancing, landlord, lease of land and buildings

THE LANGUAGE OF BANKING

- Current account, Savings account, Business account
- Overdraft facility
- Bank transfers
- To be „in the red“ and to be „in the black“
- Taking out a loan (mortgage)
- To default on a loan
- Interest
- Exchange rate, Interest rate and loan rate
- Credit cards and debit cards
- Bills and receipts
- Debts, arrears, to accrue
- Bank steps to consider a loan application
- Customer's liability and bank's liability related to online banking services

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

- Distinguish the suspect, the accused, the convict
- What is detention, custody
- What is caution
- What is legal aid
- Distinguish apprehension and arrest
- What are defence costs
- What are summary/indictable offences/offences triable either way
- Distinguish guilty plea and not-guilty plea
- Distinguish verdict and sentence
- Distinguish jury trial and summary trial
- What is burden of proof
- What does to prove beyond reasonable doubt mean
- What is bail
- Distinguish conviction and acquittal

CIVIL PROCEDURE

- What is litigation
- Who is claimant/defendant
- What is summons
- What is insolvency proceeding
- Give possible responses to the claim
- What is counterclaim
- What is judgment
- Outline tracks used for resolving different types of disputes
- What is disclosure of evidence
- What evidence can be subject to discovery
- What is the purpose of case management conference/pre-trial conference?
- What is out-of-court settlement